AGM – new executive

Our treasured treasurer has stepped down and is concentrating on her first love, English language teaching. Isobel, we'll miss your good natured teasing, your efficiency and your ginger biscuits.

We welcome a new treasurer to the executive, Robyn King. Robyn currently works at Kuranda Tax Services and enjoys her weekender block out at Ravenshoe, when not out planting. Any more of this rain and we might be joining her for a break!

Our reveg guru, Druce, is concentrating on his business this year and Bruce Wannan, a botanist by training and currently working for EPA, has agreed to be our 5th executive committee member. Druce's strategy of revegetating the upper slopes of the railway embankment is showing
